

PRIME MINISTER • PREMIER MINISTRE

I would like to convey my warmest greetings to all Canadians as we mark Remembrance Day.

Each year, on November 11, we gather in solidarity to commemorate the bravery of every Canadian who has served, and those who continue to serve our country in times of war, military conflict and peace. On this solemn occasion, we pay tribute to those who have helped to ensure that we live in freedom and peace, and who foster those same values in countries across the globe.

Let us come together to observe two minutes of silence in honour of those who have made the ultimate sacrifice and to ensure that their stories are passed on to future generations. In doing so, we preserve their legacy and renew our commitment to building a peaceful world for all.

Lest we forget.

The Right Honourable Mark Carney, P.C., O.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
